

COMPOSTING TECHNIQUE CRITICAL ISSUES SUMMARY

Accurately measure the raw bark volume.

Record all temperature data from the same depth in the windrow.

Maintain adequate moisture levels, damp, but not wet, throughout the process.

Turn and mix thoroughly. Turn the windrow inside out each time it is turned.

Measure pH each turn.

Allow adequate time for the maturation phase.
Do not rush the process.

CONTACT McHort on 021 782250 or info@mchort.co.nz for more information